YOUNG PEOPLE SEEKING SAFETY

BRISTOL DEFEND THE ASYLUM SEEKERS CAMPAIGN, BRISTOL REFUGEE RIGHTS & THE SOUTH WEST TUC

invite you to an afternoon of discussion, drama, music and poetry, to a conference that will bring together campaigners, refugees and community and support groups, an opportunity to share experiences and information and to make Bristol a safer place for young people seeking refuge here.

SATURDAY 14TH MAY
EASTON COMMUNITY CENTRE
KILBURN STREET BS5 6AW

Doors open at 11.30am. Registration begins at 12.00 midday

The opening session starts at 12.30pm and will be introduced by:

Liz Fekete of the Institute of Race Relations, whose publications include 'The Deportation Machine,' 'They Are Children Too' and 'A Suitable Enemy: racism, migration and Islamophobia in Europe' and Jo Wilding, human rights activist, author and barrister specialising in immigration and asylum cases, who frequently represents unaccompanied child asylum seekers.

Admission is free. The vegetarian lunch will cost £3 to those with an income. The event will end at 5pm
